

Get Involved!

Here are some ways you can get involved:

- Join or start your own Student Organization

For a complete and current listing of Student Organizations visit: stark.kent.edu/student/life/organizations/

- Become a Student Ambassador

Student Ambassadors represent Kent State Stark by giving guided campus tours, welcoming guests at campus events, assisting the admissions staff at recruiting events and college fairs and serving as ushers at Commencement and Featured Speakers lectures.

- Join the Student Leadership & Allocations Board

Students on this board serve as a resource person and point of contact for student organizations. They also allocate university funds to student organizations, provide recommendations as it pertains to student organization policy and serve during events and on university committees.

- Join the Student Leadership Academy

Student Leadership Academy is designed to help you develop valuable skills your future employers are looking for: communication, motivation, goal setting and presentation skills. If you're looking to build your resume, meet new people and show that you have more than just a good grade point average, then Student Leadership Academy is for you. No previous leadership experience is necessary.

- Volunteer at Student Life events, such as:

- FWOFF (First Week of Fall)
- Spring Kick-Off
- Kentiki
- Boast & Brunch
- Charity Drives

Why Student Life?

Here are some reasons to get involved with Student Life groups and activities at Kent State University at Stark:

- Complement your major by joining an academic student organization
- Connect with other students who share similar interests
- Expose yourself to new cultures, experiences, ideas, issues and lifestyles
- Build your résumé with demonstrated leadership and decision-making skills
- Appreciate the complete college experience that Kent State Stark has to offer

A student flies high on a bungee, one of the many fun activities offered at Kentiki, Kent State Stark's spring Student Life event.

Students gather for a picture at Boast and Brunch, a year-end awards event that recognizes the most outstanding student organizations and individuals.

Help Out!

As a member of a Student Organization, you'll have the opportunity to help with, and be involved in a wide variety of campus events like:

- Boo U and Earth Day
- Smart Start Saturday and Smart Start Spring
- FWOFF, Kentiki, Spring Kick-Off, etc.
- Local and national conferences
- Social activities
- Host speakers/forums
- Community service projects

Friends relieve the stress of final exams by participating in Kentiki festivities.
